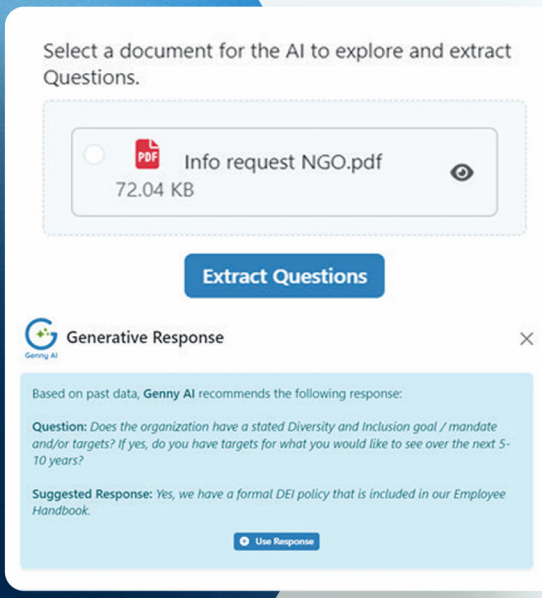
Revolutionize Disclosure Request Response with AI-Enhanced Precision

With the power of Genny AI insights and task helpers, Responsio integrates seamlessly into your existing processes, offering a robust platform that facilitates cross-functional collaboration and ensures reliable Sustainability and ESG disclosure responses.



> We get requests from every single stakeholder we can think of. This is a nice tool to be able to upload the questions and then send them out to the right SME to make sure that it's getting answered correctly. We are also able to house those questions so that we can pull those responses and give a quick reply back to similar requests."
